

Scrutiny Group

Our Scrutiny Group is made up of residents who scrutinise our performance as a social housing landlord. This is done through reviewing important service areas and checking performance across the organisation. This work is important because it gives residents a chance to show us what we're doing well and what we need to improve.

We're looking for residents who want to join our Scrutiny Group.

To be a Scrutiny Group member, you will need:

- To live in a Wythenshawe Community Housing Group property
- To be able to attend 4pm – 6pm meetings on the last Thursday of each month
- To be able to attend ad-hoc meetings while a review is taking place
- Basic English literacy skills
- Basic IT skills
- To have a keen eye for detail
- To be able to spot problems
- To make and keep appointments with Wythenshawe Community Housing Group colleagues

Scrutiny Group Role Description:

- Read papers in preparation for Scrutiny Group meetings
- Attend and actively participate in Scrutiny Group meetings
- Attend ad-hoc Scrutiny Group meetings in support of reviews, such as interviews, reality checking visits
- Provide feedback and observations to mould and shape reviews and recommendations

Get in contact if you'd like an informal chat about joining. Call or text Jodie B on 07530 641 739, Dan W on 07410 943 055, email us getinvolved@wchg.org.uk
